

Love your Library

Programme of events

Monday 13th February

2pm - 4pm: Children's spoken word artist Matthew Bellwood for an afternoon of interactive story-telling. A family activity suitable for ages of 4 and 10. Free event.

3pm - 4pm: Face painting session for children in the library.

2pm - 4pm: An advisor from Leeds Libraries will be offering drop-in job support for young people and adults.

Tuesday 14th February

1.30pm - 2.30pm: Kitty Ross from Abbey House will be facilitating a reminiscence session for older people. Get your free ticket from Headingley Library.

2pm - 4pm: Barbara Bailey will be here to promote Leeds Libraries At-Home Service and our new Mobiles.

2.30pm - 3.30pm: Complementary manicures for attendees of reminiscence session.

Wednesday 15th February

2pm: Children's author Gillian Rogerson will be here to talk about her books and answering your questions. She will discuss Children's History of Leeds as well as her other work. Aimed at children and families. Personalised copies will be available to buy on the day.

Thursday 16th February

We will be offering a range of free IT taster sessions so you can develop and improve your computer skills. Please call Headingley Library on 0113 214 4525 to book your place. Taster sessions are as follows:

10am - 10.30am: Absolute beginners

10.45am - 11.15 am: Learn to explore the Internet

11.45am - 12.15pm: Create an email account?

2pm - 2.30pm: Learn to use the NHS Direct website and how you can book hospital appointments online.

2.45am - 3.15pm: Learn to trace your family tree online

3.30pm - 4pm: Tips for searching for jobs online

7.15pm - 8.30pm: Local author Mick McCann will be here to talk about his book How Leeds Changed the World. Admission is free at this event for adults.

Friday 17th February

2pm - 2.30pm: Rhyme time for children under five. This will include a free demonstration of the library's Count Me In resources.

2.30pm - 3pm: Free badge making session.

2.30pm - 4.30pm: Introducing to Adobe Photoshop sessions - suitable for people with basic IT skills. Please call Headingley Library on 0113 2144525 to book.

Saturday 18th February

2pm - 3.30pm: Singer, songwriter and performer Rob Green will be with us to run a creative workshop on the art of writing lyrics. This event is open to all.